Donor Spotlight

Diane and David Tice are delighted to invite the St. Mark's congregation to their home for a festive holiday open house - an enchanting evening surrounded by 63 beautifully decorated Christmas trees.

Diane recently shared with HOPC her passion for Christmas trees and explained how she saw this as the perfect opportunity to blend her love of the season with the celebration of the upcoming Hearts of Palm Center.

“Some nights, I wake up with a new idea, like, "I'm going to do an angel tree!" It's getting a bit overwhelming because I'm running out of space, but every year, I seem to add more trees.

Diane Tice

I understand your family has a deeply rooted relationship with St. Mark's.

My mother, Faith Kaminski, was always active in the community. She was cornerstone of the Church, deeply involved in everything from the Altar Guild to Meals on Wheels.

It seems you share her enthusiasm for spreading joy and passion with others. Your Christmas tree display has become a beloved holiday tradition and this year you have decided to open your home to the St. Mark's congregation? Can you share some more about that?

My mother was such a go-getter, always doing something for others. She loved organizing things and people were excited to be part of her projects. I try to channel that same energy, but in my own way.

Last year, I opened my house to my neighborhood, and about 60 people came to see the trees. I spend a lot of time decorating a winter wonderland, and it brings me so much joy to share that feeling with others. I also think it's a great way to celebrate the community—especially as we approach the completion of the Hearts of Palm Center.

Tell me more about your relationship with Hearts of Palm and how it has resonated with you.

I have deep admiration for Karen and the work she's doing. The way she leads the Hearts of Palm mission is inspiring, and I'm happy to support it however I can. The Hearts of Palm Center is a big undertaking. We need to celebrate how far we've come and I hope this event will provide the opportunity for everyone to come together and do that.

Last question—what's your favorite tree this year?

Oh, it's like choosing a favorite child! I've been focusing on a Christmas carol theme this year, and each tree feels special for different reasons. Some nights, I wake up with a new idea, like, "I'm going to do an angel tree!" It's getting a bit overwhelming because I'm running out of space, but every year, I seem to add more trees. This year, though, I think I've reached my limit—though I said that last year too!

Let's join together as a beacon of faith, hope and light within Riviera Beach.
